Thorne Type-Setting 35

Distributing
Machine

Hundreds in use by leading Book Printers and Newspaper Publishers in the United States, Canada, Great Britain and Europe.

THE THORNE is the only type-setting machine which distributes its own type. The two operations may be performed simultaneously, or separately, as desired.

THE THORNE occupies very little space, runs easily and noiselessly, and is operated with slight exertion. It is simple in its mechanism and processes and very durable.

THE THORNE is the only type-setting machine that has proved successful during a long period of years. Dozens of other experimental machines have been tried—the Thorne alone has stood the test of time.
