THE PUBLIC AGAIN IN POSSESSION

The restoration of Jackson Park to citizens of Chicago yesterday, though unattended by formal ceremony, was nevertheless an incident long to be remembered by thousands of people.

There was no sounding trumpets, or waving banners, or long processions of marching columns and yet the occasion was notable and, for many reasons, important.

Crowds gathered to view the skeleton of the beautiful exposition, and to recall the glories of the city that is now vanishing. Though the people were glad to regain the privileges of the park, and thronged the historic place from the Midway to the lake front, still in the occasion of the assembly there was something that inclined to sadness.

At 7:30 o'clock yesterday morning the gates were thrown open. Seventy people were waiting at the entrance to the Midway Plaisance. When the first glint of the New Year's sun shone on the top of the Ferris wheel, the

NEBRASKA POPULIST

THEY TALK OF STARTING A LARGE DAILY ORGAN AT OMAHA

HASTINGS, Neb., Jan. 1.—The Populist leaders of the State began gathering in Hastings early today and most of the hotels are crowded. The convention looking to the reorganization of the party in Nebraska will continue four days. Only preliminary work was done by the State committee today and the convention proper will not meet until tomorrow.

One of the important subjects the convention will be required to handle will be that of establishing a daily paper at Omaha. The Nebraska metropolis has always been the weak locality of the Populists, and the press association of the party is determined they'll have a well-supported organ within the near future. It is thought sufficient funds can be secured without difficulty.

The leading alliance men here to-night express their intention of removing the headquarters of the order from Lincoln. They say this is for the purpose of avoiding corrupting influences that cling to that city, so long the political center of the state. As a result of this feature the seceding business men here do not propose to take any further chances. About 400 members of the convention are already present, but double that number will be present by tomorrow.

FIRST STATE DINNER FOR THE CABINET

Decorations Are Elaborate—List of Those Who Were Present

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 4.—[Special.] The first state dinner of the season was given to-night by President and Mrs. Cleveland for the Cabinet. The decorations of the table in the state dining room were effective and graceful. At either end of the centre piece an ellipsis of ferns studded with orchids of the slipper variety were circular pieces of orchids, from the middle of which rose tall pine-apple plants, the leaves changing from green to crimson on the edges. Beyond these, again, on the transverse sections of the ends of the table were plants of fern studded with the slipper orchids. At either end of the table the gold candelabra held tapes under scarlet shades, while the wax candles in the silver candelabra were under yellow shades. At each place was a cluster of orchids and asparagus vine, a single orchid being at the place for each of the gentlemen. As usual at Mrs. Cleveland's place there was instead of the usual array of wine glasses but two goblets, one for ice water and the other

NEW YORK PRODUCE MARKET

Grain, Provisions and Cotton, Together with Closing Quotations

New York, Jan. 6.—GRAIN—Wheat—Receipts, 18,975 bu.; sales, 300,000 bu.; No. 2 red moderately active, advancing $\frac{1}{8}$ to $\frac{1}{4}$ ¢ with Chicago, falling $\frac{1}{16}$ to $\frac{1}{8}$ ¢; firm; January, 67 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢; March, 69 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢; 15-16c. May, 71 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢; 72-10c. Corn—Receipts, 311,000 bu.; sales, 35,000 bu.; No. 2 dull, firmer; February, 43 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢; 43c. May, 45 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢; 45c. No. 2, 43 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢; 43c. Oats—Receipts, 71,500 bu.; No. 2 dull, steady; May, 35 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢ asked; state, 36 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢; 40¢; Western, 34 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢; 40 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢.

PROVISIONS—Butter—Receipts, 4,447 pkgs.; quiet; weak; Western dairy, 16c; Elgin, 25 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢; Western creamery, 19c; imitation creamery, 20c; rolls, 19c. CORN—Contract opened at 8 points advance on local buying, with Liverpool 1 point up, but eased off on local realizing and closed steady at unchanged prices to 3 point up yesterday; sales, 84,000 bales.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Jan. 6.—GRAIN—Wheat—The market for futures was stronger and closed at the top. The strength seemed rather remarkable, as foreign advices were weaker, and prices are now above an export basis. Trade was light and of a local character. Offerings were small, and to this extent limited by the weather. Receipts, 10,000 bu. of Red and Belting were said about 80,000 bu. of wheat would clear from that port between now and Jan. 15, and that the orders for the last half of the month were for a still larger amount. The demand for track wheat was less active, and of No. 1 Northern and May spread nearly a half cent, most sales of the former being about 100 bushels, but they were not active ones.

Flour is dull and little business is doing. Prices in Europe are 5c per bu higher than early in the week, but as an offset, rates from the Northwest to Eastern points are about 55c per bu higher, and cash wheat is 8c a bu above what it was then. This makes the flour market dull, inasmuch as the millers get no receipts. Nothing was done in barley with light arrivals. Receipts—Wheat, 337 cars. Flour was unchanged. Bran and shorts unchanged, market steady. Corn, market steady, No. 3, 31 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢; No. 3 yellow, 31 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢. Oats No. 3 white, 19 $\frac{1}{2}$ ¢.

SPECIAL AGATE—14 LINES TO INCH

THIS FACE IS THE SAME AS OUR REGULAR Agate No. 11 shown on preceding column, except that the body is $\frac{3}{16}$ points instead of $\frac{1}{2}$ points, the regular standard size of an Agate body. The advantage of this size of newspaper publications is the earning capacity of a column of small advertisements. Many advertisers insist on being given fourteen lines for an inch of matter, and with this Agate they may be satisfied without loss of space or increase in price. The thickness of the Agate is the same as that of the regular $\frac{1}{2}$ point Agate, except that the lines are slightly closer together.

JOTTINGS ABOUT TOWN

The Prohibitionists have nominated George Munroe for Congress in the Fourteenth district and William C. O'Brien for the Fifteenth. He notified yesterday that the portion of American called pork. He is at 3 o'clock Mr. W. Hamilton, Gibson will lecture at 3 o'clock for the benefit of the Kindergarten Association. The numerous portraits of William Dean Howells recently displayed in public prints seem to indicate that the novel and short story writer's hair comb and brush are mocking and shallow idealities.
