WARRANT FOR CUTTING, TEARING AND MUTILATION

To any Founder of this City, Greeting:—

You are hereby commanded to take the body of Solomon Lackthought and have him before the Honorable Judges of the Court of Typographers, to answer the charge, on the oath of Mallet & Shootingstick, that he, after working hours, did take from its place in the office, and with dirty fingers turn over the leaves of the Collective Specimen Book of the American Type Founders' Company, and with scissors and knife did mutilate the same in making an order instead of writing the number and name given in the aforesaid book; being detrimental to good habits
