18 point ORIGINAL OLD STYLE ITALIC

Genuine American Type, expertly manufactured at Elizabeth, New Jersey

This type first appeared in 1858 at the foundry established 1810 by Elihu White in New York City. White's grandson sold the business to Farmer, Little & Company (New York Type Foundry) in 1861, and this font was displayed in the 1862 Farmer catalogue. It disappeared from specimen books until 1900, when the A. D. Farmer & Son Type Foundry showed it in their book of that year for the last time.

THE QUICK BROWN FOX JUMPS OVER LAZY DOG

The jovial swain may rack his brain and tax his fancy's might;
To quiz is vain, for 'tis most plain that what I say is right!

The original matrices for this font have been preserved by American Type Founders Company, the great primer size being adapted to 18 youth body and new matrices cut to provide suitable replacements for oversized a, e and o. At the eloquent request of The Pastine Printer, new mats were provided for the quaint characters and other "peculiars," fitting them to point body. The type was cast, kerned and rubbed by hand methods, to titilitate typelovers in 1955, the centennial of Original Original Pasting.
